23                   NOTICE OF HEARING ON FIRST APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF FEES
24                   AND EXPENSES FILED BY LAW OFFICES OF LEONARD K. WELSH

25                   TO DEBTOR, THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, ALL CREDITORS, AND PARTIES
26                   REQUESTING SPECIAL NOTICE:

27                   NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Law Offices of Leonard K. Welsh (“Applicant”)
28                   will apply to the Bankruptcy Court for an allowance of compensation for services rendered and
1                   costs incurred by it in connection with the above-referenced case on June 12, 2020 at 10:30
2                   a.m. in the United States Courthouse, 510-19th Street, Bakersfield, CA. Applicant is the 3                   attorney for Temblor Petroleum Company, LLC (“Debtor”) in the above-referenced case.
4                   Applicant will request an allowance of $6,655.00 in attorneys fees and $27.95 in costs for 5                   services rendered and costs incurred from April 9, 2020 through April 30, 2020 as described in
6                   the First Application for Allowance of Fees and Expenses Filed by the Law Offices of Leonard
7                   K. Welsh (“the First Application”). The fees and expenses requested by Applicant will be paid
8                   from money on deposit in its Attorney Trust Account and the retainer paid to Applicant
9                   before Debtor filed its Chapter 11 case. Payment of the fees and costs requested by Applicant

1 from money on deposit in Applicant's Attorney Trust Account will not affect the 2 administration of Debtor's Chapter 11 case or the operation of Debtor's business.

3 This Notice of Hearing on First Application for Allowance of Fees and Expenses Filed
4 by the Law Offices of Leonard K. Welsh is being filed and served pursuant to 11 USC Sections
5 330, 331, 502 and 503, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the Local Rules of 6 Practice for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of California.

7 Opposition to approval of the First Application must be in writing and must be served and filed
8 with the Clerk of Court not less than fourteen calendar days before the date of the hearing. A
9 responding party who has no opposition to approval of the First Application may serve and file
10 a statement to that effect designating the application in question. No party will be heard in 11 opposition of the First Application at oral argument without good cause if written opposition to 12 the application has not been timely filed. Failure to timely file the written opposition may be 13 deemed a waiver of any opposition to approval of the First Application or may result in the 14 imposition of sanctions pursuant to Local Rule 9014-1. Further, the Court may resolve the 15 matter without oral argument unless written opposition and supporting evidence are filed
16 with the Clerk of Court and served on the moving party and the Court may strike any 17 written opposition that is not timely filed and served. Any objection to the approval of the 18 First Application must be delivered to the persons identified in the Exhibit "1" attached hereto.

19 Persons responding to the First Application can (a) determine whether the matter has 20 been resolved without oral argument or whether the Court has entered a Tentative Ruling and
21 (b) view any prehearing disposition by checking the Court's website at www.caeb.uscourts.gov
22 after 4:00 p.m. the day before the hearing. Parties appearing at the hearing on the First 23 Application must view the prehearing disposition prior to the hearing per Local 24 Rule 9014-1 (d) (3) (B),
25
26
27
